

F658

Family History
Research and Analysis

Class Sessions

- Dates: Tuesday, 17 Jan 2017 & Tuesday, 24 Jan 2017
- Time: 11:50 am to 1:15 pm
- Location: Tallwood (TA-2)

Outline

- Introductions
- Objectives
- Learning Activities
- Summary

Introductions

Please include:

- Your name
- Your reasons for taking this class
- Your level of family history research knowledge and experience

Objectives

Increase your ability to:

- Identify tools and techniques of family history research and analysis
- Prepare a documented family history
- Identify and locate sources of family history records

Learning Activities

Prepare a documented family history to:

- share with family
- join DAR/SAR/CAR
- join GSMD

Learning Activities

Tools and techniques of family history research and analysis:

- 1.Start with yourself
- 2.Find out if others have researched your family
- 3.Research Census Records
- 4.Consider posting queries
- 5.Consider acquiring family history software

Learning Activities

Use online resources to help prepare a documented family history:

- Free: Family Search, Castle Garden, Ellis Island, some NEHGS webinars
- Not Free: Ancestry.com, Fold3 (except at NARA or library)

Learning Activities

Use archives to help prepare a documented family history:

- Family History Library (Salt Lake City, UT)
- NEHGS Library (Boston, MA)
- NSDAR Library (Washington, DC)
- National Archives (Washington, DC)

To Be Continued