

How To Engage An Audience

Always say Good Morning or Good Afternoon

1. Motivating the audience to want to listen and learn.
2. The Top Ten Requirements to be a good teacher.
 - a. It is about passion, not only motivating them but also teaching them.
 - b. Be at the top of your field and keep learning more about your topic.
 - c. Make the topic interesting so the group will listen, be responsive and question.
 - d. Be flexible and not have a rigid and fixed agenda. React to changing circumstances.
 - e. Have a style and make it entertaining. Hands not glued to the podium and droning on but by working the room and engaging the audience.
 - f. Good teaching is about humor. Do not take yourself so seriously. The audience will learn in a more relaxed atmosphere.
 - g. Care about your audience
 - h. Have strong and visionary leadership
 - i. At the end of your presentation, it is all about having fun experiencing pleasure and seeing intrinsic rewards. People staying after class to talk, Meeting in the social room to discuss the class. Having someone say, “ that was a very interesting class and I learned a lot.”
