Let Us Entertain You!

LRI's own Readers' Theater troupe cordially invites you to its First Annual Best of RT Show at 2:00 on Wednesday, November 12. Produced and Directed by Susanne Zumbro and Gordon Canyock, the performance will include two short one-act plays and one scene from a Tennessee Williams' classic. Some of Tallwood's Terrific Thespians will be performing on the stage in TA-1 for the very first time. Delicious refreshments provided by our wonderful Hospitality Committee will follow the mixture of hilarious comedy and tear-jerking drama. All are welcome, even if you did not sign up for the Special Event. This is a NOT TO BE MISSED SPECIAL EVENT! Y'all come.

As a professional photographer, Abbie Edwards is experienced in portrait, commercial, wedding and special event photography. Her photos have appeared in several Reston publications, and she has done photo assignments for the Reston Association and Committee for Dulles. From 1989 to 2000, she was the photo instructor at Herndon High School. Since retiring in June 2000, she teaches photography at the Reston Community Center and at LRI. Some of her photographs are on exhibit in the Annex Room at Tallwood. This exhibit coincides with her class on photography at Tallwood.

Kudos to Landscape Volunteers— A Volunteer Opportunity

Would you like to see our LRI campus as well designed and attractive as any part of the George Mason campus? Well, that's what the landscape volunteers are all about.

During the last several years, men and women of LRI have dug, planted and maintained the foundation plantings at TA-1, 2 and 3. Kudos to Bob Bohall, Gordon Canyock and Van Vanderwal for doing the initial heavy work. Creating the beautiful flower beds along Roberts Road was LaVonne Kern's handiwork.

Other indispensable volunteers are Beverly George, Jack Underhill and John Devoll. Co-chairs of the Landscape Committee, Valerie Braybrooke and Ray Solomon, have planned new plantings for LRI. Work began in mid-October. But we need more volunteers to make it all possible. Contact one of the co-chairs if you can help.

If you are unable to do this kind of labor, you can support the efforts of the crew by donating to the Landscape Committee. The office will accept your monetary donations.

Office at Tallwood

The office at Tallwood is open five days a week, 9:00-4:00, during the class term. Between terms, the hours are 9:00 to noon. Coffee is available in the social room after 9:00. Office staff Joanne Lingerfelt and Jennifer Maloney capably keep the wheels of LRI turning, and can answer nearly every question members bring to them.
