OLLI President's Message April 28, 2017

By Ray Beery, President

Don't miss this opportunity! Bring a friend to class.

For the last week of the spring term, let's turn on our word-of-mouth machine and put out the latch-string for our families, friends, and neighbors. From Monday, May 8 to Friday, May 12, we invite visitors to sit in on any class (unless size limited by the instructor or requiring a fee) at any campus. Prospective members will receive an OLLI tote bag, summer catalog, and visitor's badge.

Board Meeting Summary

By Rita Way, Secretary

The Board met Friday, April 21 at the Loudoun campus. President Ray Beery reported that he and Executive Director Jennifer Disano attended the Osher Foundation conference in Dallas, TX on April 3-6. It was very informative and worthwhile. There are 120 Bernard Osher Institutes serving 377 locations.

A proposal was made by Ray Beery to address a request by some members who have asked for a reduced membership fee for OLLI members who can only enroll for one term due to travel, scheduling, or "snow bird" status. Board members were asked to give this proposal thought and provide feedback with ideas and suggestions. If the majority approves, Ray will submit a formal resolution to be presented at the June Board meeting.

Terri Feldmayer, chair of the nominating committee, introduced the candidates for the Board. They are Evan Douple, Paul Howard, Gloria Loew, Jeffrey Rosendhal, Mel Russell, Dave Ryan, Harvey Schwartz, and Randall Scott. They were also introduced at the Reston Super Salad Social following the Board meeting. Members will get another opportunity to meet the nominees at the annual meeting and picnic on Friday, May 5 at Tallwood.

Membership at OLLI as of April 14 is 1,182 with 1,126 full-time members and 56 introductory members.

Nihad Hedrishi will replace Ken Wade as site assistant in Reston. Work-study students Aquila Ossian and Kendall Ayers, who assisted our Tallwood AV/IT teams, will be leaving.

The issue of installing a ramp at Tallwood for mobility-impaired members is being seriously considered along with ideas to fund the cost.

Ray Beery expressed a sincere thank you for the work and dedication of our outgoing Board members Wendy Campbell, Glenn Kamber, Irene Osterman, Stan Schretter, Martha Scanlon, and Nancy Scheeler.

The Virginia Economy Is Doing Well, Virginia State Senator Marsden Tells OLLI Audience

By John Nash, OLLI E-News Staff Writer

"In spite of some pockets of economic problems, the Virginia economy is doing well," said David Marsden (D), state senator from the 37th district. Speaking to more than 140 OLLI members, Senator Marsden discussed some of the factors contributing to the commonwealth's economic strengths: federal/military-related employment, the Port of Virginia, the Chesapeake Bay, an educated, diverse, and well-trained workforce, agriculture, tourism, and technology.

Senator Marsden's presentation included graphs where he compared the Virginia economy to national averages. The corridor from Northern Virginia through Richmond to Virginia Beach remains the strongest part of the Virginia economy, although this area is still recovering from the recent recession and federal budget reductions. The educated workforce and growing technology base have helped this corridor fare much better than other parts of the commonwealth.

Photos by John Nash, Apr 21, 2017

Some areas Senator Marsden felt needed attention include:

- job creation, especially in the coal industry and other depressed areas of the state.
- a rise in the minimum wage above $7.50/hour. For 120,000 Virginians, the minimum wage they earn is simply not enough to provide a decent living.
- Medicaid expansion, especially in depressed areas. By refusing expansion, the commonwealth has given up $1.8 billion in federal assistance.
- growing transportation problems that could be alleviated through expanding the transportation fund, improving roadways, devising innovative transportation solutions, and widening of Interstate 66 to include toll lanes.

OLLI member Stephanie Trachtenberg arranged the meeting so that OLLI members could hear firsthand the senator’s viewpoints and express their concerns about Virginia’s economic health.

History Club to Learn about Aleutian Islands War History

By Beth Lambert, History Club Coordinator

The History Club will meet Wednesday, May 3 at 2:15 in TA-1. We are looking forward to a very informative presentation by retired Army colonel Stan Johnson on World War II in the Aleutian Islands. While “the Aleutians” may be a familiar name to those of us who have studied (and lived during?!) World War II, we may not know that the fighting there was the first time enemy troops landed and occupied US territory since 1814. Johnson will also discuss the Japanese strategy for taking the islands. Johnson’s presentation will explore Japanese history and the Bushido Code/Samurai Warrior ethic in the context of the epic events that took place on that inhospitable volcanic archipelago.

Missing Something? Check the Lost and Found

By Jim Dunphy, Outreach Committee Member

As the spring semester is rapidly coming to a close, we will be cleaning out the lost and found box in the Tallwood social room. As in the past, we will donate eyeglasses to the Lions Club, telephones to the police so that they can be given to victims of domestic abuse, and general material to Goodwill.

The spring semester ends May 12. The lost and found box will be emptied the week of May 15 to be donated as above. If you have lost something, please check the social room prior to that time.

Invitation to an Evening with American Novelist Richard Ford

By Matthew Davis, Founding Director of The Alan Cheuse International Writers Center at George Mason

On Thursday, May 4, the Alan Cheuse International Writers' Center at George Mason University will present acclaimed American novelist Richard Ford. One of the preeminent writers working in the United States, Ford will engage in conversation with Maureen Corrigan of NPR's Fresh Air about his new memoir, Between Them: Remembering My Parents. The event will begin at 7:30 in Dewberry Hall North on the George Mason Fairfax campus and is free and open to the public.

At 6:00, you are invited to meet Richard Ford. Ford was a good friend of Alan Cheuse, and he will help celebrate the Cheuse Center with a meet and greet in the Johnson Center Gold Room. This event features hors d'oeuvres and drinks. A contribution of $40 is required, with proceeds going to the Cheuse Center to continue to expand its programming.

To register for both this pre-event and the public conversation, click here.

Theater Lovers' Group Visits Gilbert and Sullivan Exhibit

By Ed Rader, TLG Member

On Friday, March 21, members of OLLI's Theater Lovers' Group attended an exhibition at Mason's new Fenwick Library: "Oh Joy Unbounded..." A Celebration of Gilbert and Sullivan. We were honored to have David Stone personally conduct our tour of his Gilbert and Sullivan collection that took forty years to amass and that he recently donated to Mason.

The exhibit features memorabilia from all fourteen Gilbert and Sullivan operas, individual compositions of both W.S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, and personal items from each of their lives. The exhibition is part of a larger celebration of the famous duo that the University Libraries and the College of Visual and Performing Arts (CVPA) are coordinating at Mason through 2017. The exhibit is free and open to the public during Fenwick Library's operating hours.

A full-day forum, A Celebration of Gilbert and Sullivan, will be held on Saturday, April 29. The forum will include noted scholars, a guided tour of the exhibit, and lunch; a Friends of Music dinner, and a performance of Iolanthe. Iolanthe will also be performed on Sunday, April 30. For more information and tickets, go to <https://cvpa.gmu.edu/gands>.

Thanks to Kathleen Kehoe, director of development for University Libraries and Norma Jean Reck, TLG chair, for organizing this outstanding event for OLLI.

Spanish Class Members Attend Play

By Joyce Weinstein, Class Member

Several members of the Spanish Conversational Forum honed their language skills while enjoying a matinee performance of Lin Manuel Miranda's Tony Award winning musical In the Heights. The play, entirely in Spanish with supratitles, is currently at the GALA Theater in Washington, DC. Class members attending included Marvin Singer, Melissa Fitzgerald, Joyce Weinstein, Janey Mink, Wini Schleffer, and Alice Svenson.

Computer Consternation

My computer is feeling a tad brackish slow to start and slower still to connect you might even say unresponsive without coaxing and threats too direct.
My geek murmurs o'er it with a warning lays hands on its innards and sighs suggests I delete a good deal of its load to lighten its burden, avoid its demise then perhaps it might last, on a note of good cheer no guarantees, but just maybe, to the end of the year.
