From the Desk of the Executive Director Mason Visual Arts Exhibition: Before the Americas

By Lisa Mariam, Executive Director

Before the Americas is an art historical survey featuring 45 works by Afro-Latino, Caribbean, and African American artists, many of whom have lived and worked in Greater Washington. The works of these artists span painting, printmaking, sculpture, book art, performance, and video art. The exhibit traces the significance of these artists through four themes: Genetic Memory, Migration, Invisibility, and Interconnectivity.

The exhibition is currently on display through September and early October at Gillespie Gallery inside the Art and Design Building at Mason. I encourage you to visit the exhibition, which includes a significant painting by Sam Gilliam that was recently donated to the University Art Collection. You may also be interested in attending a symposium related to the exhibition on October 4, 12:30-6:30 at the Mason Center for the Arts Concert Hall, hosted by Exhibition Curator Cheryl Edwards. More information is available at this link.

Trail Blazing: Connecting and Keeping the Appalachian Trail

You are invited to the George Mason University Libraries Special Collections Research Center for an Appalachian Trail Archives 100th Anniversary Event featuring author, historian, and Fulbright Scholar, Mills Kelly, George Mason Professor Emeritus.

Tour the Trail Blazing: Connecting and Keeping the Appalachian Trail exhibition and learn how scholars from around the world are using the Appalachian Trail Conservancy \(ATC\) Archives for teaching, learning, and research.

In 2022, George Mason University proudly became the guardian of the ATC Archives, the largest and most significant collection of its kind. This century-old archive includes correspondence, publications, more than 1,000 historic maps, and thousands of irreplaceable photographs. It serves as a vital resource for scholars, students, authors, and enthusiasts worldwide, providing invaluable insights into a century of conservation efforts.

Chat Topic for Team Bloch Wednesday Conversation October 1

By Brenda Bloch-Young and Doris Bloch,
Co-Moderators

The first and third Wednesday afternoon of each month, Team Bloch (Brenda Bloch-Young and Doris Bloch) moderate a friendly social chat on Zoom. Any member is very welcome to join us, to listen or to air views on the selected topic. We are very open

SubscribePast IssuesTranslateRSS

Our topic for Wednesday, October 1 is "What Do You Do in Your Leisure Time?" Do you have hobbies, such as reading, gardening, making music, sewing, woodworking, writing your memoirs, exercising, dancing, singing in a chorus, playing golf, or tennis? Or do you volunteer on a regular basis? Is this a new activity for you, one that you adopted post-retirement or during our covid-isolation timeframe? Do you do it alone or in a group? Be there to share; maybe you can find a kindred soul or a new activity for you to explore.

Hope to see many OLLI members on October 1 at 4:00 for our Zoom conversation. The link is found in the Daily Schedule.

In Search of Senior Olympics Competitors

By Debby Mossburg, OLLI Member and Senior Olympics Participant

Did you know that this year's Northern Virginia Senior Olympics (NVSO) is the largest ever, with over 1,200 adults, 50 and over, entering one or more of the 92 events over 17 days in September? We know of a few OLLI members who've competed this year or in years past.

Have you? We'd love to hear your stories and feature them in a special E-News article later this year, whether you rose to glory or, like me, came in near to dead last. If you've ever competed in the NVSO, please send me your name, year(s) competed, and event(s) if you'd like to be included in our tribute. Better yet, add a few lines telling about your experience. We'd love to encourage other OLLI members to give it a try. Please send me an email (debby.mossburg@verizon.net) by October 15. I can't wait to hear from you!

History Club Meeting Wednesday October 1

By Doug Snoeyenbos, History Club Coordinator

The History Club will hold its first meeting of the fall semester on Wednesday, October 1, at 4:00, on Zoom. The presenter will be our own OLLI member, Ben Gold. Ben will present on the Tonkin Gulf incident in 1964 that led to Congressional approval of formal United States involvement in the Vietnam War. Ben has a personal interest and a unique perspective on this topic because, at the time, he was there serving as Operations Officer on a destroyer in the Gulf. Ben transmitted many of the vital messages to and from the US Navy ships involved. This will be a very interesting presentation which you won't want to miss.

Theater Lovers' Group Kicks Off Its 2025-2026 Season with In-person Meeting

By Norma Jean Reck, Theater Lovers' Group Coordinator

On Sunday, October 12, all theater lovers are invited to join us to see the 2 p.m. matinee of The Turn of the Screw: The Musical at Creative Cauldron's (CC) new home at 127 E. Broad Street, Falls Church 22046 (next to Whole Foods). CC's musical geniuses Conner and Smith turned this Henry James' novella into a 90-minute musical described as "hypnotic and unnerving." You may remember that the story takes place on a remote country estate where the governess, caring for two children, soon has eerie encounters. Go online to <http://www.creativecauldron.org> to purchase First tier tickets for $35 when you enter the code SSS. Optional dinner after the show. Please email me after you have purchased your ticket so I can arrange for us to sit together.

Did you know that The Mousetrap started off as a short radio play that Agatha Christie wrote as a birthday present for Queen Mary in 1947? She based the play, then titled The Three Blind Mice, on the real-life story of Dennis O'Neill and his brother who were living on an isolated farm in foster care. The Mousetrap opened in London's West End in 1952 and ran continuously until March 16, 2020, when it closed due to the Covid pandemic. It has all the trappings of a fun whodunnit: strangers snowed in in a remote guest house, a policeman from London arrives looking for a murderer among them, and then one of them is murdered. Guaranteed to keep you guessing and on the edge of your seat.

Join the Theater Lovers' in seeing The Mousetrap on Sunday, October 19 at the 2 p.m., matinee when the Providence Players perform it at The James Lee Community Center Theater, 2855 Annandale Road, F.C. 22042. Go online to purchase your $21 tickets and select your seat at providenceplayers.org. Optional lunch before the show TBA. Thanks to Bonnie for this terrific pick.

Save the dates: Sunday, June 28, TLG goes to National Theatre to see 2 p.m. matinee of Suffs, fresh from Broadway. Monday and Tuesday, November 16 - 17, we will take an overnight coach trip to NYC to see a Broadway show. Details will follow.

Editor's Note: At the author's request, all words are published unedited, exactly as submitted.

Avebury Henge

I had been to see the more famous henge with ropes that guard its spirit of ancient rites and past worship.

Here is a more humble site where it seems boulders were thrown randomly by giants who once wandered these plains.

of stone pillars that encircle the quiet hamlet
now nestled within their fossilized orbit.

I'm surprised I am free to wander here
along with grazing sheep indifferent to Neolithic history that only seek the cool shadows provided by the rocks.

As I touch these smooth surfaces
I wonder at mysteries
I can't attempt to unravel.
I run my hand over a stone
four times my height
as if its sun-warmed surface holds a worn braille that could reveal the stories it holds.
